

Always use a toothbrush that fits your age and it will provide safe and gentle brushing for your growing teeth and gums. Find toothpaste specifically developed for children to ensure the right levels of fluoride. If it is hard for you to floss on your own have your parents help you. Using the right toothbrush, toothpaste, and floss works like magic to maintain healthy teeth and gums!